Postal Service Starts Return Toward Normal

$41 Million Added To Operating Fund By Congress, Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—With $41 million of additional funds in the till, the Post Office Department today started returning service to a close-to-normal basis.

Postmaster General Summerfield Tuesday night called off most of the cutbacks ordered 11 days ago. He acted within minutes after President Eisenhower signed a supplemental appropriation bill rushed through Congress in the last two days.

Summerfield said that "within 24 hours mail service will be back to nearly the same basis as it was" prior to the retrenchment order of April 5.

That means post office windows will be open as usual next Saturday, and there will be the customary residential deliveries and corner box pickups that day. Also canceled were plans for suspending third class mail service, except for medical items, and for stopping issuance of money orders in larger cities.

SUMMERFIELD said he was "happy to announce the resumption of normal mail service," but his statement later qualified this somewhat. He noted he had asked for $47 million more to operate for the next 2½ months without curtailments, and that Congress gave him $6 million less than that.

Hence, he said, his department is still faced with a difficult job to maintain service within the funds available for the balance of this fiscal year, ending June 30.

He therefore directed:

- Continued limitation of downtown business area mail deliveries to two a day, Mondays through Fridays, with one delivery on Saturday. Such deliveries previously have been made three to four times a day.

2. A limit of 8½ hours of window service in post offices, except where field officials feel "the needs and customs of any community justify longer hours."

3. Postponement of purchase of a planned $3 million worth of "deferrable" postal supply items until after July 1.

Summerfield said that "now that the present emergency is over we are hopeful the Congress will act quickly to increase postage rates so that the actual users of the mails will pay more of the costs."

Pending before Congress are requests for higher mail rates, including a four-cent letter and seven-cent air mail rates.

Broker Fights Extradition

DETROIT (AP)—Ewing Scott, retired Los Angeles investment broker sought for 11 months by police in two countries, said today he will fight every effort to return him to California to face charges of murdering his wealthy socialite wife.

The distinguished looking 60-year-old Californian said that charges he killed his wife were "asinine." "That's just plain ridiculous and stupid," he said.

Scott was nabbed Monday night in a customs check at the Canadian border when he tried to drive an unlicensed car into Canada.

He insisted at first that he was Lewis E. Stewart, a retired businessman, but admitted afterward to U.S. immigration officials that he was the man sought by California police. Canadian authorities had been asked to watch for Scott on the belief he had fled the United States.

Scott was arraigned on a fugitive warrant Tuesday in Detroit Federal District Court. Judge Thomas P. Thornton ordered him held pending a hearing May 7 on removal to California.

CALIFORNIA authorities said the state was acting as quickly as possible to extradite him.

Scott's 63-year-old wife, the five-times-married Mrs. Evelyn Throster Scott, disappeared from her fashionable Bel Air home in Los Angeles May 16, 1955. Police later found her false teeth and glasses in the back yard of the Scott home. Scott denied any knowledge of her disappearance.

He jumped $25,000 bail and vanished in May 1956 after he was indicted by a grand jury on charges of mishandling his wife's $600,000 estate. Five months after his disappearance the county grand jury at Los Angeles indicted him on a charge of murder.

FBI agents who searched Scott Tuesday said they found $10,000 in $100 and $20 bills in a money belt he was wearing.

Union Service Good Friday

All Churches Plan Services on Easter

Services during the closing days of Holy Week will be held in every church in Fayette County in commemoration of the Last Supper on Maundy Thursday, of the death of Christ on the Cross on Good Friday and of His Resurrection from the Tomb on Easter Day.

Probably the largest will be the Good Friday union service at the First Presbyterian Church in Washington C. H.

This service, based on the seven last words of Christ from the Cross, is sponsored by the Fayette County Ministerial Assn. and is for everyone, regardless of church affiliation or religious creed.

Ministers of seven churches in the city and county will take an active part in the service, which will start at noon and continue until 3 o'clock.

Most of the stores in Washington C. H. and throughout the county will close from noon until 2 o'clock in order that their personnel may attend at least part of the service.

Worshippers may enter or leave the service during the singing of the hymns without greatly disturbing the atmosphere of utmost reverence and devotion.

THE REV. W. NEIL HAND, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will preside and deliver the brief message on the first word: "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do."

The Rev. C. R. Williamson, pastor of the Jeffersonville Methodist Church, will conduct the second 25-minute meditation period for the second word: "Today, Thou shalt be with Me in Paradise."

Meditation for the third word: "Woman! Behold thy Son! Behold thy Mother." will be conducted by the Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Methodist Church.

Meditation for the fourth word: "My God! My God! Why has Thou forsake Me?" will be conducted by the Rev. Harold B. Twining, pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

Meditation for the fifth word: "I thirst," will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Paul H. Elliott, pastor of the McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church here and the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church.

Meditation for the sixth word: "It is finished," will be conducted by the Rev. Herbert Ricketts, pastor of the Bloomingburg and Madison Mills Methodist Churches.

Meditation for the seventh word: "Father, into Thy hands, I command My Spirit," will be conducted by the Rev. Charles W. Ware, pastor of the Church of Christ in Christian Union.

There also will be special organ music and the singing of hymns by the congregations and soloists all during the services. There also will be Scripture readings and periods of silent meditation.

GOP Leaders Seek Speedup In Ohio Legislature Session

COLUMBUS (AP)—Republican legislative leaders go into a huddle today to work out plans they hope will bring an early end to this year's working sessions of the Ohio Legislature.

House Speaker Roger Cloud (R-Logan) said he will submit the plans to a caucus of the House Republican majority today. The legislators are hoping to end the sessions by May 17, but no later than Memorial Day.

Tentatively, the speedup plans call for sessions to begin Monday afternoon rather than Monday night in order to give more time for committee meetings Monday evening. Thursday morning meetings could then be eliminated, allowing floor action on more bills before weekend adjournment.

AFL-CIO Rap Seen Headed For Teamsters

Beck's Union Appears Trying to Avoid Showdown with Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Teamsters Union moves to delay or talk their way out of a showdown on AFL-CIO corruption charges seemed likely today to run into a solid rebuff from the federation.

Sources in the parent federation said trial procedures already set for Dave Beck, Teamsters Union president, and the huge trucking union itself are fair and "leave no room for negotiation."

AFL-CIO President George Meany was not immediately available for comment.

The embattled Teamsters' Executive Board, meeting in Galveston, Tex., Tuesday, asked the AFL-CIO for negotiations as to charges against Beck and a bill of particulars as to charges that the union itself is under corrupt domination. The board, contending the charges were not specific, said it would attend no hearings until "fundamentals of fair adjudication" are assured.

THE AFL-CIO charges are based on Beck's invoking the Fifth Amendment in refusing to tell Senate rackets investigators about his admitted personal use of union funds, and court indictments against other union officers.

The federation's Ethical Practices Committee has set May 6 for a hearing for the union. The AFL-CIO Executive Council has set May 20 to hear the case against Beck, who already has been suspended as an AFL-CIO vice president and councilman.

Bolded down, the attitude of President Meany and other chiefs of the big labor combine seems to be this:

Either the Teamsters rid themselves of Beck and other leaders whose actions have been criticized, or the union is going to be kicked out of the federation.

The Teamsters' board, acting unanimously, appeared to give Beck solid backing in his fight with the AFL-CIO. It said his "suspension was without authority and the filing of charges was contrary" to the AFL-CIO constitution.

It said the findings against the union also were made without authority.

4 Pennsy Union Leaders Probed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four union leaders, linked by testimony of a convicted dynamiter with alleged terrorism in the Scranton, Pa., area were before the Senate Labor Rackets Committee today.

Committee aides said they would be asked about bombings, threats, beatings and truck sabotage, of which the committee heard vivid stories Tuesday.

Robert Kennedy, committee counsel, said he hoped to question all the men accused in testimony by Paul Bradshaw, former Teamster official who testified he was double crossed after he had agreed to "take the rap" for a house bombing.

Bradshaw all are awaiting sentence on charges of dynamiting the house built by Pozusek.

Bradshaw said there has been no effort yet to remove any of them from office. McClellan said Congress should know whether "union officials who are convicted criminals . . . are still going to be union bosses."

Explosive Details

EX - PRIZE - FIGHTER Paul Bradshaw tells Senate labor racket探者 that he "took the rap" when he was convicted of dynamiting a house under construction by a non-union contractor in Scranton, Pa., in 1954. He said he was "double crossed" by the bosses of his Teamsters local. They assured him, according to Bradshaw, the case had been "taken care of" with the district attorney.

John Durkin, secretary-treasurer and business agent, Scranton Teamsters Local 229. Bradshaw testified Durkin told him to drive the car when a "stink bomb" was thrown into a Scranton bakery which was using non-union deliverymen.

Robert Hubshman, member of Teamsters Local 229. Bradshaw tossed the stink bomb.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) called for testimony to show whether the AFL-CIO, in implementing its newly adopted code of ethics, is attempting to oust union officials convicted of crimes including Bartell, Durkin and Bonacuse. Convicted last October, they and

Anthony Bonacuse, business agent for Local 130, Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union, Scranton. Edward Pozusek, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., housing contractor, testified Tuesday Bonacuse warned him "it would be a smart thing for you to be union—the boys play rough here," when he went to Scranton to build a home. The home subsequently was bombed in 1954.

Ohio Sheriffs Disagree on Juvenile News

Officers Give Views On Use of Names in Reporting Crimes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio sheriffs do not agree as to whether names of juveniles should be publicized when they are involved in serious crimes.

A survey of 15 sheriffs attending the Buckeye State Sheriffs Assn. here disclosed that eight favored using the names and seven are opposed to it.

Sheriff Carl E. Rose of Lawrence County, president of the association, said "Yes, I'm definitely in favor of using names of juveniles where the crime is serious."

Rose said he felt that juveniles should not be identified with petty crimes because there is a chance "to correct the kids then. But I'm in favor of mugging (photographing and fingerprinting those involved in serious crimes. This record may help us later."

Sheriff J. A. Shuman of Clark County, executive secretary of the association, took the opposite view.

"I'm in favor of keeping the names of juveniles out," he said, "although I'll admit it hasn't done any good. In Springfield, the papers use the names of juvenile traffic offenders."

Sheriff Clay T. Cotterman of Allen County was emphatic that "Newspapers should publish the names of juveniles involved in any serious crime. People should know who these kids are. The way it stands now, a juvenile commits a crime, gets a pat on the back by a judge and goes right back to crime."

In agreement with this opinion is Sheriff Wilmer Clay of Van Wert, who said:

"Any juvenile committing an adult crime should be handled like an adult. Juveniles are shielded too much and they know it. Some kids can be helped but the juvenile is on the road to being a hardened criminal when he pulls something serious."

Opposed to this view is Sheriff Fred Heinzelman of Ross County.

Some Very Strange Houses Built by Hollywood Figures

BY HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—On the living room wall his current girl friend's picture was framed by an object oval in shape and designed for a more talismanic purpose.

The chandelier was an inverted baptismal font, admittedly stolen from a church being renovated. You entered the house through a tunnel and a shaft, which was topped by a regulation manhole cover in the center of the living room. He served highballs in soup bowls.

This is partially describes the craziest house I ever visited in Hollywood. It was built by Jack McDermott, a scenarist, whose passing a few years ago, ended a strange era. Jack was one who had lots of time for fun, when the strain of competition didn't keep a man in an ulcerous condition the whole time. Jack had tampered some white pigeons, but he went further: He dyed them pastel shades.

When you pressed a porcelain handle, on which was printed the word "press," in a certain small room, it set off a fire siren as had been doing what it was supposed to do.

A house is a sign of success in Movieland. Big success, big house. Harold Lloyd, who made it before high taxes, still maintains a mansion in Beverly Hills, the taxes on which last time I checked, were $18,000 a year. Not far from him is an older, and larger house, which Thomas H. Ince built in the twenties. Its scores of doors were fitted with gold plated door knobs.

When Norma Shearer and the late Irving Thalberg lived on the ocean front at Santa Monica, they had the usual appurtenances of Hollywood success—six-car garage, oversized swimming pool, projection machine recessed in the living room and the only

"I'm strongly against using the names of juveniles," he said. "Why make it any worse? Give the kids a chance. I've seen teenagers get in trouble, right themselves and turn out to be very good citizens. Using names would be like throwing stones at someone who already is down."

Man 'Too Busy' To Allow Holdup

MANSFIELD (AP)—A 74-year-old Mansfield gasoline station attendant was "too busy" to bother with a holdup Tuesday.

Police said a masked man shoved a gun in the face of the attendant, C. W. Pryor, and snarled:

"This is a holdup. Give me your money."

"I ain't going to do it," Pryor shot back.

"Give me your money or I'll shoot," the thug threatened.

"Go ahead and shoot," Pryor said.

At that point, Pryor saw an auto pull into the station, shoved the robber to one side and said, "Get out of my way, I've got a customer."

The would-be robber fled.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The U. S. Navy's guided missile program is not limited by a Defense Department directive which restricts the Army and Air Force to certain types of missile development, Rear Adm. John E. Clark, director of

"In contrast to other services we must be in the missile business across the board," he told the local section of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences. ## Predictions As To Farming Developments

As to the many predictions relative to the future of industry in this nation, there has been one picture of the future in the farming industry, drawn by a few experts in the agricultural field, which is of special interest to Fayette County because of its extensive farming interests.

Not long ago at a meeting during farm week exercises at Ohio State University, one noted expert in talking of the future of farming, touched on the idea that in years to come American farms will get progressively larger and more specialized and that individual farmers will become more and more dependent on federal government subsidies.

The man reported to have made this statement was D. H. Doane, chairman of the board of directors of the Doane Agricultural Service, Inc., of St. Louis.

He was said to have declared that "The farmer who is not prepared to use mechanical power, and tools at top rates of efficiency just cannot stay in the game. . . . A farmer can and will go broke much more quickly these days than was the case some 10 to 15 years ago."

He was speaking about American farmers. His remarks, however, would apply to farmers everywhere in the world. A report by the international Food and Agriculture Organization says global farming is going through a major crisis, that farmers in almost every nation are taking an economic beating and are looking to their governments for assistance.

It seems somewhat ironic that although, as in the United States, the demand for food is steadily rising in the world, and standards of living generally are improving, farmers cannot make ends meet without help. The FAO emphasizes, as Mr. Doane did in Columbus, that the primary reason for the economic distress in agriculture is the inability of farm operators to improve their efficiency. It costs them much money for small landholders to purchase high-priced (but essential) machinery or to enlarge their "productivity base" by buying additional acreage. That is where the demand for government grants come in; subsidies help to bridge the difference between what farmers need and what they can earn, many agriculturists declare.

It is pointed out, however, that few farmers get rich on public cash assistance. In time the inefficient producer, the one who can't realize a profitable return on labor and machinery investments, must sell out.

This transition is slow and often painful. Farm communities do not suffer alone. Rural families comprise an important consumer market, not only for heavy equipment but for household commodities and even (in this era of specialization) for packaged food. So when agriculture is affected, such as punctuation marks and other gaps in the text.

Average Person

The average person generally blinks about 25 times per minute. Incidentally, most of you, I dare say, are "right-eyed."

Statistics show that in some 80 percent of the population the right eye does more work than the left. The left eye dominates in 25 percent of the cases, and in the remaining cases, the eyes alternate with first one doing most of the work and then the other taking over.

This doesn't occur at birth. We are surprised that the eyes are good readers blink more frequently than do poor readers. The rate of blinking actually may account for their being good readers. The blink, you see, makes it possible for them to ignore nonessential objects, such as punctuation marks and other gaps in the text.

Government price-support programs, therefore, if necessary or should be designed to encourage agricultural initiative and to ease the economic shock resulting from the withdrawal of farmers who "just cannot stay in the game." Farmers are not the only ones to benefit from "parity."

That tree growth is affected by the length of the day. Most trees (The American elm is an exception) will quit growing within a month if they are limited to eight hours of natural light a day.

That 98 per cent of those hurt in revolving door accidents are women of 65 and older. (Sorry, don't have the comparable statistics for men brutally ambushed by swinging doors.)

That in the U. S. during 1955 there were 6,400 traffic deaths for every 100 million miles traveled by motor cars. What does this mean? If you have average luck and drive 100 miles every day, the chances are that in about 425 years you'll be killed in a traffic accident. The trouble is, everybody doesn't have average luck.

That there really is a town called Podunk in Massachusetts. That the Hotel Edison here has an unusual service . . . it will arrange blood transfusions for me."

position in the Middle East?

In a word, have we not moved into a trap which makes war with Russia over the Middle East an inevitability?

Or to argue conversely, do the Russians need a war in the Middle East while Egypt and Syria work for them in all Arabic countries, meanwhile paralyzing Western opposition to Soviet Russia by lulling the American State Department into a condition of desuetude?

Obviously, if Russia can take over the Middle East without a war, it is more efficient and smarter to do it that way than to shoulder the burdens of war.

Therefore it is to be presumed that the Russians will continue to employ political means. Thus far, Russia has been extremely successful in the use of political rather than military weapons. And there is another advantage in that, namely, that when Westerners see that no general war, involving Russia, occurs, it is assumed that conditions are improving and that right policies are being pursued.

By George Sokolsky

All that has been accomplished thus far by American diplomacy has been to reduce the authority of Great Britain in the Middle East, to smash the French North African empire, to imperil the existence of Israel and to drive Nasser into a closer association with Soviet Russia.

Should another local war break out in the Middle East, will the United States find itself allied with Soviet Russia against Western Europe? And to what end?

Or shall we wait until the Marxist universal state discovers in Islam a direct competitor and then shall we find ourselves in alliance with Nasser against Russia and Red China? The peril is that local wars are liable to break out in the Middle East all the time. Quite apart from the Israel-Egypt situation, Jordan which was manufactured and subsidized by Great Britain, is likely to pass away like the winds of its own deserts.

Will it be absorbed by Saudi Arabia or by Syria? If by Saudi Arabia, does Jerusalem remain partitioned? If by Syria, does Jerusalem come under Russian influence?

Will Jordan's future be settled peacefully or will there be a war over it? The United States has undertaken to train a Saudi Arabian army, navy and air force. It does not amount to much and the President was authorized by Congress to spend some extra money in middle eastern countries.

But should King Saud attempt to add Jordan to his territory, would the United States be a party to this sort of colonialism, while objecting to British and French and Dutch colonialism?

In the pragmatic guess-work that has become American policy, is colonialism virtuous when practised by an African or Asiatic nation and evil when practised by a European country?

There seems to be no consistency in our thinking or in the execution of our foreign policy.

Certainly Nasser, who has not exhibited any gratitude for the United States rescuing him from defeat by Great Britain, France and Israel, is still being pampered by American diplomacy, which hopes somehow to wean him away from the Russians who are again using Egypt as a base for the provisioning of Arabic countries with arms and munitions.

Should Nasser turn on Russia, at our prompting, are we prepared to fight Russia over the Middle East? Should Nasser disappoint us by continuing his alliance with Russia, what steps do we plan to take to redeem our position in the Middle East? In a word, have we not moved into a trap which makes war with Russia over the Middle East an inevitability?

Or to argue conversely, do the Russians need a war in the Middle East while Egypt and Syria work for them in all Arabic countries, meanwhile paralyzing Western opposition to Soviet Russia by lulling the American State Department into a condition of desuetude?

Every Perfect Vision Has Its Blind Spot

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Even though you may have 20-20 vision, you've got a blind spot. Everyone has.

Don't let it worry you, though. It's so small that it will never bother you. In fact, hardly anyone is aware that it even exists.

Blind Spot Test

Let me show you how you can get an idea of where your won blind spot is.

Mark a small dot on a piece of paper. Then, about an inch or two away, make a cross.

Close one eye. With the other eye look at the dot. Then move the paper slowly to and from your eye. You'll find that at some point the cross will disappear.

Another surprising thing about the eyes is that good readers blink more frequently than do poor readers. The rate of blinking actually may account for their being good readers. QUESTION AND ANSWER

M. L.: What would cause a man's breast to swell and shoulder and arm on the left side to pain?

Answer: Swelling of the breast may come from a variety of causes, such as an infection or a tumor. Pressure on nerves could produce the pain in the shoulder and arms.

Another surprising thing about the eyes is that good readers all start out giving both eyes the same workout. As we grow older, however, we begin to read and do other close-up work.

As a result of this, the images of both eyes generally aren't as we suspect they are. Instead, we are inclined to lean upon one more than the other.

Keeping Our Eye on the Ball

The Middle East is as much a muddle today as it was a year ago, if not more so, and the Eisenhower doctrine and the preachers of John Foster Dulles and the legalisms of Dag Hammarskjold have produced no end to the belligerency of Egypt or the jihad of Saudi Arabia or the inclination of Israel to risk its future on the ordeals of arms. Not since the 8th century has there been such a propulsion of Islamic enthusiasm for power.

All that has been accomplished thus far by American diplomacy has been to reduce the authority of Great Britain in the Middle East, to smash the French North African empire, to imperil the existence of Israel and to drive Nasser into a closer association with Soviet Russia.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

At the present time there are 42 farm ponds in Fayette County, according to Game Protector David Krupa.

While many of these farm ponds are little more than hog wallows, others are maintained in better condition, and quite a number of them have sizeable fish in them.

In all probability the next few years will see many additional farm ponds constructed, not only as a water supply for lives to come but as a source of fish for the farmer who owns the ponds.

Warren County leads all other counties in Ohio in the number of farm ponds, having well over 1,200, according to reports.

Most of these farm ponds are used for watering livestock, and others usually larger, provide fish and help maintain the water level in the immediate vicinity.

There is still room for many more farm ponds in this county, although the number of farms watered by streams is unusually large and the demand for artificial watering places is not as great.

In all probability most of the farm ponds constructed during the next 25 years, will be for supplying fish, rather than for watering places.

MIGHT HIT GAS!

The Washington C. H. "Evening News" of April 11, 1894, or 63 years ago (it was Volume 1, No. 30 of that paper) carried a front page article about the possibility of striking gas on the "Found a in Corner" where a water well was being drilled. The drill had reached a depth of 200 feet and was "still in a hard, flinty limestone."

The gist of the article was that if the drill went down far enough, it was sure to strike gas and "a gusher in our city would be a veritable mine of wealth to its owners."

I do not know how deep the well was drilled until water was struck. No gas was found.

Apparently Washington C. H. was a typical "Gay Nineties" town for the following personal mention from the Portsmouth Times w's reproduced in the April 11, 1894, issue of the Washington C. H. "Evening News:

"Miss Jean Baker of Washington St., has returned home after a delightful visit of several weeks in the gay society town of Washington C. H. She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ed Buscher."

He is believed to be a visitor in the city, but I am wondering if he does not spend just about all of his time within the limits of Washington C. H.

I refer to a cock pheasant which Rolland O. West 723 Harrison St., and some others see frequently as he struts about Gardner Field looking for food or just walking about for the pleasure he gets out of it.

Whether the pheasant flies into the field from outside the city, or has his home in the southern part of town, I do not know but I strongly suspect he live within the city day and night.

BLACK CAT SUPERSTITION

There is an old, old belief that if a black cat crosses one's path, it is a sure sign of bad luck, unless the person turns about and goes back.

Apparently the superstition has been handed down from time immemorial, and there are still some people who firmly believe the old saying, and turn back when any kind of a cat, black or otherwise, crosses their path.

One man who formerly lived here, and I will not give his name for obvious reasons, always "killed" the superstition by taking off his hat, spitting in it, replacing it on his head and proceeding as if the black cat had not crossed his path.

He was firmly convinced that such a performance neutralized the black cat jinx.

30 YEARS AGO

Thirty years ago this week the Fayette County Agricultural Society was organized for the purpose of resuming the county fairs.

George Hyer, who operated a stone quarry on the Leesburg Rd., (now the Fayette Limestone Co.) installed a new stone crusher with a capacity of 200 to 300 tons daily.

Fred Joyce, Columbus, was found guilty of perjury in the Huston forgery case.

The worst flood on record was sweeping the lower Mississippi Valley with thousands rendered homeless and great areas inundated by levees giving way.

Oh, yes! Babe Ruth got his first home run of the season.

Jesse Hagler's Hereford baby took top honors in the big Cincinnati show and sale.

The B&O Railroad installed one of its first concrete boxes for watchmen at crossing west of Union Station.

SWEPT WING Trade-Ins

1955 DODGE Custom Royal Lancer. This car is a '55 model but most people will think you are driving a '57 when they see you in it. It has tri-tone color combination. Top black-saddle, white & Burgundy bottom, (some folks think Bergundy is a little too flashy, if you think so we will repaint the bottom a color that suits you). This car is equipped with signal seeker radio, (just touch the bar and you have another station-no knob winding). Power brakes - almost new white side wall tires, tinted glass backup lights, plastic steering wheel, power pack - with dual exhaust, hand brake, warning light, day & night inside mirror - 2 outside mirrors. In fact just about everything anyone would want. It has 33,000 miles, by one owner. It's yours for $2295.00

1955 CHEVROLET Bel Air 2 door Sedan. Finished in India ivory top, twilight turquoise bottom, has radio, heater, power glide and Chevrolet's mighty powerful V-8 power plant. If you want a classy looking car, one with plenty of zip and power, this is it. It carries our famous "you must be satisfied guarantee". The price is right ..... $1695.00

1954 BUICK Riviera 2 dr. Hardtop Coupe. Here is really a used car that is beyond description. A 1954 model, with 13,000 miles, if you don't believe it, come out and look for yourself. This car will bear out this statement. Finished in condor yellow bottom, with black top. Has radio, heater and Buick's smooth, dynaflow transmission, which just gives you one long surge of power. This car really has the look of today, with raparound windshield and current body styling. If the former owner had used Boron I would buy it myself. Yours for many happy miles ..... $1795.00

1954 PLYMOUTH Savoy 4 dr. Sedan. Has radio and heater and Chrysler Corp.'s clutchless automatic drive, "power flite". From an economy stand-point this transmission gives almost no trouble. This car has just come out of the hospital and fully recovered. Our head mechanic has pronounced her ready for miles and miles of smiles. He has gone over her engine completely - including new rings, rod bearings, valve job. She runs as if she had just come off the line in Detroit. We kind of neglected getting this car ready to go, so we have had her over 30 days. So we are going to cut the price even tho she is a first class car. All yours for $895.00

1954 PLYMOUTH Belvedere 4 dr. Sedan 2 tone paint. Finished in San Diego Gold lower and black top with matching interior. Has radio and heater, air foam seats almost new tires and believe it or not the former owner is a lady school teacher. This car is equipped with oilflow shock absorbers, which help to make the Plymouth ride the envy of the Auto Industry, and of course there are still more Plymouth Taxi Cabs in the USA than all other makes combined - for only one reason, Economy of operation. They are really tough automobiles. If you are a discriminating buyer, if you want low cost per miles, if you want a really well kept car, you just can't beat it for ..... $1095.00

1953 PONTIAC Chieftain Deluxe 4 dr. Sedan. Has Pontiac's famous straight 8 cyl. engine. Pontiac's straight 8 was so good that Gen'l Motors wouldn't give it up until long after all other G. M. lines had V-8's (in fact, '55 was the first year for V-8's in Pontiacs.) Has dual-range hydramatic. One range for city driving, with plenty of zip and power and another range with a higher ratio which slows down your engine, yet lets you travel at the same speed; for country driving. This car has a 20 gal. gas tank, (most '57's are just now coming to this,) which is very nice on a trip. This Pontiac is finished in a real soft 2 tone green paint with Linden green lower and Spruce green upper. Has full chrome wheel covers, almost new black tires which go well with the light green lower color. The engine compartment and the trunk of this car along with the interior and the exterior are just as clean as new. Almost. If you like just a little heavier car, but still want economy of operation, we would recommend this Pontiac as our best buy for ..... $1095.00

1953 DODGE Coronet V-8, 4 dr. Sedan. This car is equipped with gyro torque drive, which will give all the take-off you will ever want. This transmission is a semi-automatic set up, in that you have Automatic drive as long as you are going forward, but you have a clutch, and a lever to reverse with. So if the car you have now is a conventional gear-shift, you have nothing new to learn to drive it. This Dodge has an 8 tube radio, seat covers that are in good condition. The finish is all one color Bemini Blue offset with almost new white side wall tires. It has tinted glass, which cuts down the glare of the sun and helps cut down the glare when you are meeting cars at night. The former owner of this car got just a little bit close to the garage doors and scratched up the fenders. We have repaired them and probably you wouldn't know the difference if we didn't tell you or maybe you would. Anyhow we are able to offer you this 1953 Dodge for only $895.00

1950 CHEVROLET Sport Coupe. Finished in a solid Windsor, blue "Metalli Chrome" color. The former owner reports that the engine of this car has been "all overhauled" and it does run very good, however it has snow tires on the rear, which makes a hum on the road, and besides that there seems to be another hum in the rear end and that doesn't quite seem to belong there. If you are interested, come out, drive it and give us your opinion. If you like it, we will part with it hum and all for ..... $295.00

1949 PLYMOUTH Club Coupe. This car is really a '48 style but carries a '49 title, which means it came out early in '49. This is a real good running car with good tires. The only drawback to this car is, the body is rusted out down at the bottom as so many of the older cars are. If you want a car to go fishing or if you are real economy minded, here is a car that will serve you well. It has a new battery and never, never refuses to start. You just can't go wrong at ..... $150.00

'Saturday Night' Shopping Tradition Fading in Ohio

COLUMBUS — Ohio's traditional "Saturday night" peak shopping times for county seat cities is a casualty of the jet age.

So reports the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants, which says its recent survey shows modern merchandising trends have caused the change.

Of the 100 local merchants' associations reporting, 54 have shifted to Friday night as the night when stores are open.

Ohio communities north and east of a line extending through Lorain, Medina, Wadsworth, Massillon, Carrollton and Barnesville will go on Eastern Daylight Saving Time April 28, according to the survey. Central Ohio communities generally are awaiting results of a Columbus election May 7 in which voters will ballot on question of daylight time.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

At the present time there are 42 farm ponds in Fayette County, according to Game Protector David Krupla.

While many of these farm ponds are little more than hog wallows, others are maintained in better condition, and quite a number of them have sizeable fish in them.

In all probability the next few years will see many additional farm ponds constructed, not only as a water supply for lives to come but as a source of fish for the farmer who owns the ponds.

Warren County leads all other counties in Ohio in the number of farm ponds, having well over 1,200, according to reports.

Most of these farm ponds are used for watering livestock, and others usually larger, provide fish and help maintain the water level in the immediate vicinity.

There is still room for many more farm ponds in this county, although the number of farms watered by streams is unusually large and the demand for artificial watering places is not at great.

In all probability most of the farm ponds constructed during the next 25 years, will be for supplying fish, rather than for watering places.

MIGHT HIT GAS!

The Washington C. H. "Evening News" of April 11, 1894, or 63 years ago (it was Volume 1, No. 30 of that paper) carried a front page article about the possibility of striking gas on the "Fountain in Corner" where a water well was being drilled. The drill had reached a depth of 200 feet and was "still in a hard, flinty limestone."

The gist of the article was that if the drill went down far enough, it was sure to strike gas and "a gusher in our city would be a veritable mine of wealth to its owners."

I do not know how deep the well was drilled until water was struck. No gas was found.

THE "GAY NINETIES"

Apparently Washington C. H. was a typical "Gay Nineties" town for the following personal mention from the Portsmouth Times was reproduced in the April 11, 1894, issue of the Washington C. H. Evening News:

"Miss Jean Baker of Washington St., has returned home after a delightful visit of several weeks in the gay society town of Washington C. H. She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ed Buscher."

COXEY'S ARMY

On April 11, 1894, Coxey's "Continental Army" was encamped at Uniontown, Pa., in a snowstorm and many were deserting. The army finally reached Washington D. C. but failed to accomplish its mission of improving work and wage conditions.

All attendance records broken here by crowds flocking to the churches for Easter services.

Ohio GI Accused In Slaying Case

TV 'Good Taste' Rulings Studied

Many Programs Barred
By Personal Prejudice

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — Every television producer, director and writer will tell you of stories he wants to do on the home screen. But "they" won't let him.

"They" are not as much individuals as the generally carefully guarded overtone of the industry which wishes to keep its programming within "good taste" and is frightened of offending anyone. It's a curious situation.

There is, for example, one program which owns the television rights to MacKinlay Kantor's "Andersonville," but will not dramatize the novel for fear it will offend elements of our southern population. On the other hand, the offensive action of some of our ancestors up in Salem, Mass., some time ago when they tortured and killed fellow citizens for witchcraft is considered (and rightfully) absorbing television. In fact, "Odyssey" (CBS-TV) repeated its production of the Salem trials Sunday.

"Good taste" is often a matter of personal prejudices. Since the television audience now embraces almost the entire population. And so, next season, we're going to see many fairy tales care-

OUTSTANDING YOUNG FARMERS

Curtis Tufts Kudo Mager

WINNERS of the annual search by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce for the four outstanding young farmers, for 1956, were announced at a banquet in Durham, N. C., April 16. Chosen were Alex S. Curtis, 31, Manilla, Ark., who has made a model farm of run-down acreage purchased in 1949; John F. Tufts, 31, Dallas, Tex., who built a dairy herd from seven to 205 cows in six years despite rugged drought conditions; Takeshi Kudo, 34, Kona, Hawaii, who utilized submarginal lava land to develop new methods in growing coffee, and Russel Mayer, 36, Milford, Utah, for producing cash crops on more than 1,000 acres of what once was Utah desert wasteland. (International) fully purged of any offensive elements.

The "horror story," a basic and delightful form since men first told tales around a fire, has never been very horrifying on television. Albert McCleery, the producer of "Matinee Th'ater" (NBC-TV), was telling us last week that he owns TV rights to a vast store of the Dracula-Frankenstein-Vampire school. But he does not use them because some mothers have complained that they frighten the kiddies and they have been found disturbing to patients in mental institutions who watch the program.

Ruling Is Made

COLUMBUS (AP)—Atty. Gen. William Saxbe has ruled that county hospitals cannot use operating funds for new construction.

He said hospital trustees should use bond or tax levy funds for new or added buildings only on orders certified by the chairman and secretary of the county board.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG FARMERS

Curtis Tufts Kudo Mager

WINNERS of the annual search by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce for the four outstanding young farmers, for 1956, were announced at a banquet in Durham, N.C., April 16. Chosen were Alex S. Curtis, 31, Manila, Ark., who has made a model farm of run-down acreage purchased in 1949; John F. Tufts, 31, Dallas, Tex., who built a dairy herd from seven to 205 cows in six years despite rugged drought conditions; Takeshi Kudo, 34, Kona, Hawaii, who utilized submarginal lava land to develop new methods in growing coffee, and Russel Mager, 36, Milford, Utah, for producing cash crops on more than 1,000 acres of what once was Utah desert wasteland. (International) fully purged of any offensive elements.

The "horror story," a basic and delightful form since men first told tales around a fire, has never been very horrifying on television. Albert McCleery, the producer of "Matinee Theater" (NBC-TV), was telling us last week that he owns TV rights to a vast store of the Dracula-Frankenstein-Vampire school. But he does not use them because some mothers have complained that they frighten the kiddies and they have been found disturbing to patients in mental institutions who watch the program.

Ruling Is Made

COLUMBUS (AP)—Atty. Gen. William Saxe has ruled that county hospitals cannot use operating funds for new construction.

He said hospital trustees should use bond or tax levy funds for new or added buildings only on orders certified by the chairman and secretary of the county board.

Slayer of Son Faces Accusation

DAYTON (AP)—Mrs. William A. Hockensmith, a 33-year-old Dayton mother, faces a second degree murder charge in the throat-slashing of her 13-year-old son last Sunday.

FBI agents filed the murder charge in federal court here Tuesday, accusing Mrs. Hockensmith of slaying William A. Hockensmith Jr. Authorities said she also slashed the throat of her daughter, Jo Carol, 10, and then cut her own throat and wrists. Another son, Hadley, 6, escaped.

The husband, Maj. William A. Hockensmith, 37, assigned to Gentle Air Force Base here, said his wife had been in poor health and feeling "despondent."

Italian Consul's Son Said Missing

CHICAGO (AP)—The 14-year-old son of the Italian consul general in Chicago was hunted by police today after his father reported he had been missing from home since Tuesday morning.

The boy's father, Count Ludovico Barattieri di San Pietro, told police his son, Vittorio, left the consulate at about 7:30 a.m. for Loyola Academy on the far North Side. He did not report to any of his classes at the academy Tuesday day.

Police said Barattieri told them his son was carrying with him his savings of more than $80.

BLUE RIBBON CHAMPS

The third meeting of the Blue Ribbon Champs was held in the Bloomingburg gymnasium. The president, Mary Cook, called the meeting to order with Nancy Owens leading the 4-H pledge. Mr. Chrisman, the assistant advisor, gave the members their project books and announced the on-coming events. Larry Carman gave a talk on feeding market lambs and David Heistand gave a demonstration on feeding market pigs. The club was well represented at the Good-grooming clinic which was held April 10. Marilyn Rhoades and Nancy Owens served refreshments. The next meeting will be held April 19, 1957, in the Bloomingburg gymnasium.

Although the Mount of Temptation is shaped like an inverted cone, its peak flattens out as if nature had prepared a small platform for the Biblical drama between Christ and Satan. The foundations of a modern Orthodox church are here among the debris of ruined medieval chapels. Work has stopped on the modern church because of shortage of funds.

In the solitude of this site a lone guard sits night and day. From this summit can be seen the misty mountains across the Jordan River — the mountains of Moab to the north and Edom to the south. Directly beneath the mountains lies the Jordan plain, green with irrigated cultivation around Jericho and in a few isolated spots but otherwise desert.

The distant peaks of the hills of Galilee may be glimpsed in the northwest. Directly west the tips of the tallest church spires of Jerusalem may be seen. It was from this summit that Satan whispered to Christ, "If Thou therefore shalt worship me, all shall be Thine." And it was here that Christ replied: "Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve."

MOUNT OF TEMPTATION, Jordan — When Christ was shown "all the kingdoms of the world" by Satan, He was, according to local belief, standing on this mountain peak which rises 2,000 feet out of the Jordan River valley.

The peak is called the "Mount of Temptation" by those who live here. From its summit you can see all the world, but the mountain offers a glimpse of two independent countries, Jordan and Israel, and enough of a view to be tempting.

It is generally agreed that the temptation of Christ by Satan occurred immediately after His baptism, when He was "led by the spirit into the wilderness" for a fast of 40 days. Local traditions say He spent this time in a limestone cave on the side of the Mount of Temptation.

The mountain stands at the edge of a mountain range not far from the site of the sacred baptism in the Jordan River. The mountain overlooks Jericho but is so barren and uninviting that a person seeking solitude will find this an ideal place for meditation even today.

A road from Jericho halts at the foot of the Mount of Temptation. The climb to the top is made on foot. A rocky footpath zigzags up the side of the conical-shaped peak.

Halfway up, built into the rock, hangs a Greek Orthodox Monastery. The monastery almost blends with its rock foundations except for the blue-domed bell towers that stand out from the cliff.

Visitors are welcomed here by five monks who spend their lives working and praying. These monks live off the produce of their own farm down in the Jordan Valley.

The rock of the mountain forms one wall and most of the ceiling of the long, narrow monastery.

Underneath a dome at one end of the building is a chapel and the grotto where Christ is believed to have lived during His 40-day fast and where He was tempted the first time. A small, stone-hewn

Opening Day Jinx Stays With Reds; They Lose 13-4

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs have been rated as National League pennant contenders but an opening-day jinx still hangs heavily over them.

Only once in the last eight years have the Reds been able to win an opener. The jinx existed Tuesday but it was worse than usual. A 13-4 beating by the St. Louis Cardinals was the worst first day setback a Cincinnati team has suffered in 46 years.

What happened Tuesday? Herman Wehmeyer was the kind of pitcher the Redleg bosses always thought he should be when he was wearing a Cincinnati uniform.

The Redleg power hitters failed to produce any slugging. The admittedly questionable Cincinnati pitching folded up like a worn-out acordian.

A couple of veterans who Cardinal General Manager Frank Lane says laughingly "we may keep," did a major share of batting damage. They were Stan Musial and Del Ennis. The others who hurt the Reds worst were Wally Moon and rookie Bob Gens Smith.

Musial had two doubles and two singles in four official trips to the plate as he played in his 775th consecutive National League game. Ennis, acquired during the winter from the Philadelphia Phillies, drove in three runs.

Smith joined the still comparatively small group of rookies who have hit a home run in their first major league game. Moon, well on his way to be a Cardinal "goat" after striking out three times in his first four trips to the plate, got a three run homer.

All in all, the Cardinals produced 17 hits off Johnny Klippstein, Art Fowler, Don Gross and Hershel Freeman. Not one of the Redleg hurlers escaped punishment.

Wehmeyer, performing before a home town crowd of 32,554, admitted he was pleased but he grinned as he said:

"If we keep hitting like we did today I know I'll have a good year."

Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbets said of the defeat: "We got it good. Period. That's all you can say."

He added: "We had a couple of good shots (at taking the lead) ourselves, but couldn't get the hit at the right time."

Doubles by Alvin Dark and Musial gave the Cards a quick run in the opening inning and they never were behind.

Cincinnati once pulled into a 2-2 tie. That was after four innings of play. The Reds got their runs on singles by Johnny Temple and Ed

Bailey and a double by Ted Kluszewski. Bailey drove in the runs. But the bottom dropped out on Klippstein and the rest of the Redleg pitchers a few minutes later.

The Cards got five runs in the sixth with Smith's home run being included in the six hits. Fowler and Don Gross followed Klippstein to the mound in that frame.

From there on the Cards merely breezed in but they picked up another run in the seventh and four in the eighth with Moon getting his three-run homer.

Two ground rule doubles by Don Hoak and one by Kluszewski were the only extra hits the Reds were able to get off Wehmeyer.

Murry Dickson of the Cards and Joe Nuxhall of the Reds were slated to be the opposing pitchers to start. The Indians' 13-4 record is the best in the American League.

Smith's 13-4 record is the best in the National League.

Both teams had two wins and two singles in four official trips to the plate as he played in his 775th consecutive National League game.

Ennis, acquired during the winter from the Philadelphia Phillies, drove in three runs.

Smith joined the still comparatively small group of rookies who have hit a home run in their first major league game. Moon, well on his way to be a Cardinal "goat" after striking out three times in his first four trips to the plate, got a three run homer.

Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbets said of the defeat: "We got it good. Period. That's all you can say."

He added: "We had a couple of good shots (at taking the lead) ourselves, but couldn't get the hit at the right time."

Doubles by Alvin Dark and Musial gave the Cards a quick run in the opening inning and they never were behind.

Cincinnati once pulled into a 2-2 tie. That was after four innings of play. The Reds got their runs on singles by Johnny Temple and Ed

Opening Day Jinx Stays With Reds; They Lose 13-4

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs have been rated as National League pennant contenders but an opening-day jinx still hangs heavily over them.

Only once in the last eight years have the Reds been able to win an opener. The jinx existed Tuesday but it was worse than usual. A 13-4 beating by the St. Louis Cardinals was the worst first day setback a Cincinnati team has suffered in 46 years.

What happened Tuesday?

Herman Wehmeier was the kind of pitcher the Redlegs bosses always thought he should be when he was wearing a Cincinnati uniform. The Redleg power hitters failed to produce any slugging. The admittedly questionable Cincinnati pitching folded up like a worn-out acordian.

A couple of veterans who Cardinal General Manager Frank Lane says laughingly "we may keep," did a major share of batting damage. They were Stan Musial and Del Ennis. The others who hurt the Reds' worst were Wally Moon and rookie Bob Gene Smith.

Musial had two doubles and two singles in four official trips to the plate as he played in his 775th consecutive National League game. Ennis, acquired during the winter from the Philadelphia Phillies, drove in three runs.

Smith joined the still comparatively small group of rookies who have hit a home run in their first major league game. Moon, well on his way to be a Cardinal "goat" after striking out three times in his first four trips to the plate, got a three run homer.

All in all, the Cardinals produced 17 hits off Johnny Klippstein, Art Fowler, Don Gross and Hershel Freeman. Not one of the Redleg hurlers escaped punishment.

Wehmeier, performing before a home town crowd of 32,554, admitted he was pleased but he grinned as he said:

"If we kept hitting like we did today I know I'll have a good year."

Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbets said of the defeat:

"We got it good. Period. That's all you can say."

He added:

"We had a couple of good shots (at taking the lead) ourselves, but couldn't get the hit at the right time."

Doubles by Alvin Dark and Musical gave the Cards a quick run in the opening inning and they never were behind.

Cincinnati once pulled into a 2-2 tie. That was after four innings of play. The Reds got their runs on singles by Johnny Temple and Ed

Early Predictions For Big Leagues Are Materializing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The 1957 major league season is barely 24 hours old on a full-fledged basis, yet everything looks to be falling into the predicted pattern:

1. Stan (The Man) Musial wasn't kidding when he said he was shooting for his seventh National League batting title. He was 4-for-4 as the St. Louis Cardinals, picked as the "most improved club," tagged the Cincinnati Redlegs 13-4 in Tuesday's opener.

2. The Milwaukee Braves, out to show they can do the job and generally conceded as having the best pitching staff in the league, came from behind to beat the Chicago Cubs 4-1 on Warren Spahn's four-hit pitching.

3. Tom Morgan, insisting all along he was a starting pitcher and not a reliever, made his first start since July 4, 1955, went all the way and beat Detroit 2-1 with a four-hitter for the Kansas City Athletics as an escapee from the New York Yankee bullpen.

4. Newcomer Gino Cimoli, described in the spring by Manager Walt Alston as "one guy who has to be in the lineup," belted a 12-inning home run to give the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7-6 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies in the lone night game.

In other National League action, the Pittsburgh Pirates ended an eight-game jinx by defeating southpaw Johnny Antonelli and the New York Giants 9-2.

In the American, the Chicago White Sox and Billy Pierce outlasted the Cleveland Indians and Herb Score 3-2 in 11 innings; the New York Yankees broke up a tie in the ninth to defeat the Washington Senators and Chuck Stobbs 2-1; and Boston's Red Sox packed their punch into one inning to end Baltimore's stay in first place 4-2.

Musial, the 36-year-old lefty swinger who wants to hit .340—his lifetime average—this season, doubled twice to lead the 17th Cardinal attack. Herm Wehmeier spiked the Redlegs' big guns, permitting only four extra-base hits. Rookie Bobby Gene Smith homered with two on and Wally Moon socked a three-run shot for the Cards. Johnny Klippstein lost it.

Span set down the last 14 men he faced after loser Bob Rush's RBI double in the fifth. Johnny Logan capped the Braves' winning four-run sixth with a two-run homer.

Cimoli, who had three hits in six trips while opening in left field for the Brooks, delivered his payoff homer against Robin Roberts, the gopher ball champ. Don Zimmer, at short in place of ailing PeeWee Reese, and Gil Hodges also homered for the Dodgers. Don Newcombe was the starter but crew-cut Clem Labine was the winner with four innings of two-hit relief.

The Pirates managed just three hits off Antonelli, but his own bobble of a bunt led to two fifth-inning runs and their first decision over the lefty ace since 1955.

The Bucs wrapped it up for right-hander Bob Friend with six runs in the eighth—only one of them earned—against reliever Marv Grissom.

Yankee Yogi Berra and Washington's Roy Sievers swapped seven-inning home runs to take the southpaw duel between Whitey Ford and Stobbs into the last of the ninth all even. Then Berra's single, Gil McDougald's double and an intentional walk set up a clinching single by Andy Carey.

Two walks and a single by Larry Doby decided the somewhat shabby battle between Score and Pierce, two 20-victory lefties, at Cleveland. Score struck out 10, but walked 11. Pierce fanned nine, walked three.

The Tigers and 21-game winner Frank Lary, beaten 2-1 by the A's on Gus Zernial's double in the '56 opener, tried again and wound up with the same result. This time Lary homered and the A's counted the big run Joe DeMaestri's single in the seventh.

Five singles and Jim Piersall's sacrifice fly brought the Red Sox four runs in the fourth inning for Tom Brewer's victory. Ike Delock had to bail him out, however.

Indian Invitation Puzzles Ohio Coach

OXFORD (AP)—Track coach George Rider of Miami University says he's pleased but puzzled by an invitation to return to India to teach track events.

Rider, now in his 36th year at Miami, said he'd be glad to go to India, but it would depend on when and how long he would have to stay there.

Rider spent three months in the winter of 1955-1956 on a tour sponsored by the International Education Exchange, conducting track and field clinics in Indian cities.

Pony Grid Plan Being Revamped

School's Position On Park Accepted

The board of directors of the Pony Football League Tuesday voted to "accept the wisdom" of a city school board decision blocking Sunday afternoon Pony League games at Gardner Park, and decided to come up with an alternate plan before the board's next meeting May 6.

"After considerable discussion, we decided they were probably right anyway," Mac Dews, Jr., said for the directors Wednesday morning.

"We gave it a thorough airing and we can see why they came to that conclusion—there are no hard feelings," he added.

Just what the alternate plan would be, Dews did not disclose. "We'll give the school board first chance to discuss it," he said.

Dews admitted that pony football here faces a revenue problem since Sunday games have been ruled out, but "we can work our way out of that," he said.

At the same meeting, the board turned down a sample pair of cleated shoes offered for league purchase. The directors reaffirmed their original assertion that there will be no cleated shoes used in the league, no matter how soft the cleats.

Colors were assigned to the teams as follows: Tom Mark Insurance and Real Estate, blue; Frisch's Big Boy, red; French Mfg., orange; Armburst Concrete, green; and Washington Lumber Co. gold or white.

Jeffersonville's Tigers nosed out Bloomingburg's Bulldogs, 3 to 1, at Bloomingburg Tuesday after school by taking advantage of the Bulldog miscues.

The Bulldogs drew first blood in the third when J. Hidy walked and scored on a single by Welsh.

The Tigers came back in the next frame to even the score when Wilt singled, stole second and third and came home on a wild pitch.

They sewed up the game with 2 runs in the top of the sixth. Mason was safe on an error and scored on Wilt's single. After Wilt advanced on Smith's single, he scored on a fielder's choice.

Mason, who relieved M. C. Jordan on the mound for Jeffersonville in the sixth with the bases full and one out, fanned five of the next six batters. The other popped out.

21 Firms Taking Part In B-I-E Day Program

Twenty-one Washington C. H. business firms will be hosts to 195 seniors from the five county and city high schools on Business-Industry-Education Day Wednesday May 1.

Preliminary plans, formulated by the C. of C. education committee, headed by Walter F. Rettig, call for a convocation at Washington High School at 9 a. m. on that day.

Short talks by city and county officials and city county school leaders will precede a 20-minute movie, "It's Everybody's Business," emphasizing America's free enterprise system.

After a short address by another speaker not yet selected, the seniors will be dismissed until 3 p. m.

Concord Zoning Talks Continue

Matter May Come To Vote in November

Members of Concord Township Number 1 Farm Bureau Council met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Case, Miami Trace Rd., Tuesday evening and continued their discussion of rural zoning.

Kenneth Bush, members of the township zoning committee, and chairman of the Farm Bureau Legislative Committee, reviewed the activities of the zoning program for the township up to the present time and answered many questions on the subject of zoning.

It is probable that the matter will come up for a vote in the township at the November election. Preceding that time, at least two open meetings for questions and answers will be held.

BUSH ALSO REPORTED on a meeting of the Farm Bureau Legislative Committee which was held in conjunction with a member of the State Workmen's Compensation Commission. It was brought out at that meeting that only about 8,000 farmers out of a possible 120,000 are carrying workmen's compensation which, it is pointed out, probably is one of the reasons why the farm rate is so high.

Figures show that up until the last year more money was being paid out for claims under the farm section by the State Workmen's Compensation Commission than was being received as premiums.

THE APRIL Council Guide on natural resources was used as a part of the discussion material. This is brought in the subject of present drainage laws and a discussion of the bills before the Legislature trying to enact better drainage laws.

The matter of hunting and the problem it presents to land owners came in for its share of discussion. It was estimated that there are at least 10,000 pheasants in Concord Township and that the pheasant population is beginning to present a problem in crop destruction.

The next meeting will be held the third Tuesday of May at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bush.

Refreshments were served by the host and hostess to bring the evening to a close.

Galveston, Texas, terminus of the Canada-to-Gulf highway, was named in 1782 for Bernardo de Galvez, then governor of Louisiana.

Soldier Relief Board Nod to Houseman

Common Pleas Judge John P. Case has appointed Wayne L. Houseman, Jeffersonville, a member of the Fayette County Soldiers' Relief Commission, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Selby P. Gerstner.

His appointment is for the unexpired term, ending Dec. 5, 1957.

Houseman is a veteran of World War II, a member of the veterans of Foreign Wars, and a member of the American Legion.

Unlawful Flight Laid to Ohioan

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Dave Tiburzio, 34, of Youngstown, was arrested Tuesday by FBI agents and police in nearby Etna.

He is charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for armed robbery. E. H. Winterrowd, special agent in charge of the Pittsburgh FBI office, said Tiburzio was indicted in September for armed robbery and safe cracking in the July 8, 1956 holdup of the Baron Cafe in Steubenville.

Tiburzio forfeited $50,000 bond and failed to appear for trial Sept. 3, the FBI agent said.

House Rescinds Aid for Alien

WASHINGTON (AP)—An alien convicted in Ohio on a kidnapping charge will again be subject to deportation under a resolution passed by the House Tuesday. Carl Stender, a native of Latvia, was convicted in 1955 of kidnapping, and was sentenced to 10 years in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa. He was tried in U. S. Court in Northern Ohio.

The resolution rescinds previous congressional action which had stayed Stender's deportation.

Refreshments were served by the host and hostess to bring the evening to a close.

Galveston, Texas, terminus of the Canada-to-Gulf highway, was named in 1782 for Bernardo de Galvez, then governor of Louisiana.

Color of Traffic Light at Issue in Court St. Crash

An auto-truck collision at the corner of Court and North Sts. about 3 p. m. Tuesday was the outgrowth of apparent confusion over the color of a traffic light.
